THE SCRIPTURES

God and Revelation

Our eternal, transcendent, all-glorious God, who forever exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, is by his very nature a communicative being.¹ He both creates² and governs³ through his words and has graciously revealed himself⁴ to humanity⁵ in order to commune with us.⁶ He has revealed himself through creation and providence in ways plain to all people, leaving no one without a testimony of himself.⁷ He also revealed himself through specific words, that we might come to a fuller knowledge of his character and will,⁸ learning what is necessary for salvation and life.⁹ Through the medium of human language,¹⁰ which is suitable and adequate for communication with those who bear his image, God has preserved in Holy Scripture the only authoritative and complete revelation for all humanity.¹¹

The Origin of Scripture

All of Scripture is breathed out by God,¹² being accurately delivered through various human authors by the inspiration and sovereign agency of the Holy Spirit.¹³ We therefore receive the sixty-six books of the Old and New Testaments as the perfect, infallible, and authoritative Word of God. With the fullness of revelation given in Christ and his completed redemptive work, no new normative revelation will or need be given until Christ returns.¹⁴ In its original manuscripts, the whole of Scripture (and all its parts) is inerrant—without error in all it affirms.¹⁵ Because there is one divine author behind all of Scripture, we are able to arrive confidently at a harmonious, doctrinally unified understanding of the whole. Furthermore, God in his loving providence has determined to preserve his Word as pure and trustworthy throughout history,¹⁶ just as he guided the early church in discerning and identifying the canon of Scripture he inspired.

The Attributes of Scripture

Believers live by every word that comes from the mouth of God.¹⁷ The Word of God is therefore necessary and wholly sufficient for knowing the Father's love in Christ, experiencing his glorious plan of redemption, and being instructed in the way of fruitful and godly living.¹⁸ The Word of God is clear, and everything we need in order to know, love, and fellowship with God can be plainly understood through ordinary means, without appeal to any human authority.¹⁹ Although not all Scripture is equally plain, when its intended meaning is misunderstood, the fault lies not in the clarity of God's communication but in the recipient.²⁰ Scripture alone is our supreme and final authority and the rule of faith and life. The Scriptures must not be added to or taken away from, and all creeds, confessions, teachings, and prophecies are to be tested by the final authority of God's Word.²¹

The Reception of Scripture

We come to know that the Bible is God's Word through Scripture's own self-attesting authority²² and by the work of the Holy Spirit bearing witness through the Word in our hearts.²³ As the Scriptures are preached and read,²⁴ the Spirit delights to illuminate our minds so that we understand, cherish, and obey his Word.²⁵ God's intended meaning is revealed through the intentions of the inspired human authors, rendering the truth of God's Word a fixed, historical reality. Therefore, the Bible is to be prayerfully interpreted according to its context and original intent, with due regard to the progressive nature of revelation and the collective interpretation of believers through the ages.²⁶ Ultimately, Scripture interprets Scripture, and the meaning of each text must be understood in light of the whole. As we devote ourselves to God's Word,²⁷ we commune with God himself and are fortified in faith, sanctified from sin, strengthened in weakness, and sustained in suffering by his unchanging revelation in Scripture.²⁸

THE TRIUNE GOD

The Nature of God

There is only one²⁹ true and living God,³⁰ who is infinite in being,³¹ power,³² and perfections.³³ God is eternal,³⁴ independent, and self-sufficient, having life in himself with no need for anyone or anything.³⁵ He is spirit,³⁶ transcendent and invisible,³⁷ with no limitations or imperfections,³⁸ immutable,³⁹ and everywhere present with the fullness of his being.⁴⁰ His knowledge is exhaustive, including all things actual and possible, so that nothing—past, present, or future—is hidden from his sight.⁴¹ God is not divided into parts, but his whole being includes all of his attributes: he is entirely holy,⁴² loving,⁴³ wise,⁴⁴ just,⁴⁵ good,⁴⁶ merciful,⁴⁷ gracious,⁴⁸ and truthful.⁴⁹ Our God is the infinite fountain of being⁵⁰ who created all things,⁵¹ and all things exist by him and for him.⁵² He is supremely powerful to perform all his holy and perfect will, ruling over his creation with total dominion,⁵³ righteousness,⁵⁴ wisdom,⁵⁵ and love.⁵⁶ In his transcendence, God is incomprehensible in his being and actions, yet he reveals himself such that we can know him truly and personally.⁵⁷

The Holy Trinity

The one true God eternally exists as three persons—Father,⁵⁸ Son,⁵⁹ and Holy Spirit⁶⁰—infinitely excellent and all-glorious. Each person is fully God, sharing the same deity, attributes, and essential nature, yet there is but one God.⁶¹ Each person is distinct, yet God is not by this distinction divided into three parts, natures, or gods. The Father has always existed as Father, the unbegotten fountain of all life.⁶² The Son has always existed as Son, eternally begotten of the Father, uncreated and without beginning, of one essence with the Father.⁶³ The Holy Spirit has always existed as Spirit, eternally proceeding from the Father and the Son, and of one essence with them.⁶⁴ The Godhead thus exists in a perfect unity, indivisible as to nature and substance, yet inseparably distinguished as persons who enjoy a fullness of fellowship and love.⁶⁵

The Relations and Actions of the Trinity

The persons of the Trinity, being one in nature, are also inseparably united in their external works,⁶⁶ such that to deal with one person is to deal with the Trinity as a whole.⁶⁷ Yet within this unity there are distinctions in the way the divine persons relate to each other and to creation,⁶⁸ although there is no difference in essence or attributes. Within the Godhead, the ordered relations among the persons are eternal yet without any inequality. In the works of creation, providence, and redemption, the persons fulfill roles consistent with their eternal relations: the Father originates, the Son accomplishes, and the Spirit completes.⁶⁹ Nevertheless, the three, thus distinct, are neither divided nor mixed, are of one and the same essence, are equal from all eternity, and are worthy to be worshipped as the one God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.⁷⁰

GOD'S SOVEREIGN PURPOSES

God Ordains All Things for His Glory

From all eternity, God sovereignly ordained all that exists and all that occurs in his creation,⁷¹ in order to display the fullness of his glory.⁷² God's plans are efficacious, always coming to pass,⁷³ and they are universal, encompassing all the affairs of nature,⁷⁴ history,⁷⁵ and individual lives.⁷⁶ These decrees are an exercise of his free,⁷⁷ unchangeable,⁷⁸ wise,⁷⁹ and holy will.⁸⁰ Yet God, in his foreordination, is not the author of sin,⁸¹ nor do his decrees negate the will of his creatures, who act with the power of willing choice in accord with their nature.⁸² His ordaining and governing all things is compatible with his creatures' moral accountability⁸³ such that God never condemns a person unjustly.⁸⁴ Therefore, all persons are responsible for their actions, which have real and eternal consequences.⁸⁵

God's Grace in Election

God in his great love, before the foundation of the world, chose those whom he would save in Christ Jesus.⁸⁶ God's election is entirely gracious⁸⁷ and not at all conditioned upon foreseen faith, obedience, perseverance, or any merit in those whom God has chosen.⁸⁸ His decision to set his saving love on the elect is based entirely on his sovereign will and good pleasure.⁸⁹ The number of God's elect is fixed for eternity, and no one who has been chosen by God will be lost.⁹⁰ In the mystery of his will, God passes over the non-elect,⁹¹ withholding his mercy and punishing them for their sins as a display of his holy justice and wrath.⁹²

As God has appointed the elect to glory,⁹³ so has he foreordained all the means necessary to carry out his saving purposes.⁹⁴ Those whom he has predestined are redeemed by Christ,⁹⁵ effectually called to faith by his Spirit, justified,

CREATION, PROVIDENCE, AND MAN

God Creates and Rules All Things

In the beginning, the triune God freely created out of nothing the universe and everything in it by the word of his power, all for his own pleasure and the display of his glory.¹⁰¹ God declared the entirety of his creation to be very good,¹⁰² and even in its fallen state it tells of his greatness¹⁰³ and is to be delighted in¹⁰⁴ and stewarded for his glory.¹⁰⁵ As supreme Creator, God is separate from and transcendent over all he has made.¹⁰⁶ As sovereign Lord, he is present with his creation to sustain all things,¹⁰⁷ govern all creatures, and direct all circumstances in accord with his holy and loving will.¹⁰⁸ In everything God supremely acts for his glory¹⁰⁹ and for the good of his people in Christ,¹¹⁰ granting us great comfort and unshakable hope in God's love, wisdom, and faithfulness to us in this life and in eternity.¹¹¹

Man's Creation in God's Image

God created man, male and female,¹¹² in his own image¹¹³ as the crown of creation and the object of his special care.¹¹⁴ God directly created Adam from the dust of the earth,¹¹⁵ and Eve from Adam's side,¹¹⁶ as the parents of the entire human race.¹¹⁷ They were created to know and glorify their Maker by trusting in his goodness and obeying his word.¹¹⁸ God gave them dominion over all creation, to fill, subdue, and steward the earth as his representatives.¹¹⁹ All human beings are likewise made in the image of God.¹²⁰ Despite the effects of the fall on sinful humanity,¹²¹ all people remain God's image bearers, capable of fellowship with him and possessing intrinsic dignity and value at every stage of life from conception to death.¹²² Redemption in Christ progressively restores fallen men and women to their true humanity as they are conformed to the image of Christ.¹²³

Man as Male and Female

Men and women are both made in the image of God and are equal before him in dignity and worth.¹²⁴ Gender, designated by God through our biological sex, is therefore neither incidental to our identity nor fluid in its definition, but is essential to our identity as male and female. Although the fall distorts and damages God's design for gender and its expression,¹²⁵ these remain part of the beauty of God's created order. Men and women reflect and represent God in distinct and complementary ways, and these differences are to be honored and celebrated in all dimensions of life. To deny or seek to remove these differences is to distort a fundamental way in which we glorify God as male and female.

Marriage, Sexuality, and Singleness

Biblical manhood and womanhood enrich human flourishing in all its dimensions. God instituted marriage as the union of one man and one woman who complement each other in a one-flesh union¹²⁶ that ultimately serves as a type of the union between Christ and his church.¹²⁷ This remains the only normative pattern of sexual relations for humanity. Husbands are to exercise headship sacrificially and with humility,¹²⁸ and wives are to serve as helpers to their husbands, willingly supporting and submitting to their leadership.¹²⁹ Together these complementary roles bring joy and blessing to each other and display the beauty of God's purposes to the world. Single men and women are no less able to enjoy and honor God and no less important to his purposes. They also are to give expression to God's image in distinct and complementary ways, flourishing as his image bearers and bringing him glory in their singleness.¹³⁰

MAN'S SIN AND ITS EFFECTS

The Origin of Sin

God originally created man innocent and righteous, without stain or corruption.¹³¹ In this state, Adam and Eve enjoyed a fullness of life in communion with God, delighting in him and his righteous will yet capable of transgressing.¹³² Despite these privileges, they were led astray by Satan¹³³ and willfully sinned against their Creator by doing what he had forbidden.¹³⁴ In their rebellion they doubted his character, rejected his authority, and disobeyed his word.¹³⁵ Man's trespass of God's command¹³⁶ brought enmity with God¹³⁷ and the curse of death.¹³⁸ Because God had established Adam as the representative head of the human race,¹³⁹ his sin was imputed to all his descendants, bringing guilt, condemnation, and death to humanity.¹⁴⁰ Therefore, we are all by nature corrupt¹⁴¹ and inclined to evil from conception.¹⁴²

The Effects of Sin

From the inherited corruption of humanity¹⁴³ arise all the sins that we commit.¹⁴⁴ All people are now by nature enemies of God,¹⁴⁵ living under the power of Satan,¹⁴⁶ subject to the curse of the law,¹⁴⁷ and deserving of eternal punishment.¹⁴⁸ Moreover, the whole nature of man has been corrupted by the fall, and no part of man is untainted by sin.¹⁴⁹ Although fallen people remain in the image of God¹⁵⁰ and manifest the virtues of common grace, they are incapable of pleasing God,¹⁵¹ meriting his favor,¹⁵² or freeing themselves from their bondage to sin.¹⁵³ Their hearts are hardened,¹⁵⁴ their understanding is darkened,¹⁵⁵ their consciences are corrupted,¹⁵⁶ their spiritual sight is blinded,¹⁵⁷ and their deeds are evil.¹⁵⁸ Therefore, all people are dead in sin and without hope apart from salvation in Jesus Christ.¹⁵⁹

THE PERSON OF JESUS CHRIST

Incarnation and Two Natures

In the fullness of time God the Father sent his eternal Son,¹⁶³ the second person of the Trinity,¹⁶⁴ into the world as Jesus the Christ.¹⁶⁵ He was conceived by the Holy Spirit¹⁶⁶ and born of the virgin Mary,¹⁶⁷ taking on himself a fully human nature with all its attributes and frailties, yet without sin.¹⁶⁸ In this union, two whole, perfect, and distinct natures were inseparably joined together in the one person of the divine Son without confusion, mixture, or change. Our Redeemer acted in and through both his human and divine natures,¹⁶⁹ in ways appropriate to each, with both natures being preserved and neither diminished by the other. Yet both his human and divine natures are united and find expression in the one person of the eternal Son.¹⁷⁰ Thus our Lord Jesus Christ, God the Son incarnate, is fully God and fully man, able to be our all-sufficient savior and the only mediator between God and man.¹⁷¹

Earthly Life and Ministry

As God's incarnate Son, our Lord Jesus Christ inaugurated the kingdom of God,¹⁷² fulfilling God's saving purposes¹⁷³ and all Old Testament prophecies about the One to come:¹⁷⁴ he is the Seed of the woman,¹⁷⁵ the Seed of Abraham,¹⁷⁶ the Prophet like Moses,¹⁷⁷ the Priest after the order of Melchizedek,¹⁷⁸ the Son of David,¹⁷⁹ the Suffering Servant,¹⁸⁰ and God's appointed Messiah.¹⁸¹ As such he was anointed by the Holy Spirit¹⁸² and lived a sinless life¹⁸³ in complete obedience to his Father.¹⁸⁴ Jesus entered into full human existence, enduring the common infirmities, temptations, and sufferings of mankind. He perfectly revealed the character of God,¹⁸⁵ taught with divine authority and utter truthfulness,¹⁸⁶ extended God's love and compassion,¹⁸⁷ and demonstrated his lordship through the working of miracles¹⁸⁸ and the exercise of divine prerogatives.¹⁸⁹

Death, Resurrection, and Reign

Having fully obeyed his Father in life, our Savior was also obedient unto death.¹⁹⁰ He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, dying a substitutionary death for the sins of his people.¹⁹¹ He was buried and arose bodily from the dead on the third day,¹⁹² vindicating his identity and saving work as God's Messiah¹⁹³ and guaranteeing the defeat of death, our future resurrection, and the glorification of our physical bodies.¹⁹⁴ Forty days later Jesus ascended bodily to heaven,¹⁹⁵ where he is now enthroned at the right hand of God,¹⁹⁶ reigning over all things,¹⁹⁷ and interceding for his people as their Great High Priest.¹⁹⁸ One day he will return to judge all people and angels,¹⁹⁹ putting all his enemies under his feet and dwelling with his people forever.²⁰⁰

THE SAVING WORK OF JESUS CHRIST

The Humiliation of Christ in His Saving Work

In the entirety of his life and death, Jesus Christ humbled himself²⁰¹ to serve as our mediator²⁰² in obedience²⁰³ to his Father's saving purposes.²⁰³ As the second Adam,²⁰⁴ his sinless life²⁰⁵ of wholehearted obedience to God's law obtained the gift of perfect righteousness²⁰⁶ and eternal life²⁰⁷ for all of God's elect.²⁰⁸ In his substitutionary death on behalf of his people,²⁰⁹ Christ offered himself by the Spirit²¹⁰ as a perfect sacrifice, which satisfied the demands of God's law by paying the full penalty for their sins.²¹¹ On

The Efficacy of Christ's Saving Work

God the Father was pleased to accept Christ's sacrifice as a complete atonement for sin, raising him to new life²¹⁹ and vindicating his identity and work as the Messiah.²²⁰ For those who place their faith in Jesus Christ, God's righteousness requires no further sacrifice for sin,²²¹ nor is there any human achievement or merit to be added to Christ's accomplishment.²²² The atoning work of Christ is wholly efficacious,²²³ securing the full salvation of all the elect by purchasing the forgiveness of sins,²²⁴ the gifts of faith and repentance,²²⁵ eternal life,²²⁶ and every other blessing that comes to God's people.²²⁷ As the sole and sufficient atonement for sin,²²⁸ Christ's saving work is to be proclaimed to all people without exception as the only

The Exaltation of Christ in His Saving Work

The exaltation of Christ in his resurrection, ascension, and reign reveals the full glory of his mediatorial work.²³² Raised by the power of God,²³³ Christ triumphed over sin, death, and Satan,²³⁴ and, as the firstfruits of the new creation,²³⁵ gives eternal life to all who are united to him by faith.²³⁶ Having ascended to the Father's right hand,²³⁷ Christ pours out the Spirit on his people²³⁸ and intercedes on their behalf²³⁹ as a Great High Priest,²⁴⁰ constantly advocating their cause²⁴¹ and granting them access into God's presence.²⁴² As the exalted Lord, Christ reigns with all authority as universal king²⁴³ and head of his church,²⁴⁴ governing the affairs of men and nations²⁴⁵ and empowering his people to be victorious over sin and Satan.²⁴⁶ The

THE PERSON AND WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Person of the Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the third person²⁵⁰ of the Trinity, who proceeds eternally from the Father²⁵¹ and the Son.²⁵² He is equal in deity, attributes, and nature with the Father and the Son,²⁵³ and with them is to be worshipped and glorified. The Spirit manifests God's active presence in the world, giving life in God's creation²⁵⁴ and new creation.²⁵⁵ Existing forever with the Father and the Son, the Spirit is the agent of all blessing to God's creatures and makes possible communion with him.

250. Scripture teaches that would-be followers of Christ ought to be "[baptized] in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt 28:19), which implies the equal authority and dignity of the name of the Holy Spirit, which represents his person. Moreover, Scripture consistently attributes to the Spirit characteristics and activities that properly belong to a person, e.g., Isa 63:10; Matt 12:24; Luke 12:12; John 14:26; Acts 5:3-4, 9; 7:59; 13:2-4; 20:28; Eph 4:30; 2 Cor 3:17-18.

The Work of the Spirit Prior to Christ's Coming

The eternal Spirit was present at the beginning of God's creation,²⁵⁶ carrying out the creative word of God²⁵⁷ and giving life²⁵⁸ to all things. In God's work under the old covenant, the Spirit was present with God's people²⁵⁹ to consecrate, deliver, guide, and grant saving faith in the promises of God.²⁶⁰ He empowered prophets to reveal God's Word,²⁶¹ appointed elders to render judgment,²⁶² raised up judges to bring deliverance,²⁶³ anointed priests and kings as his representatives, and inspired the record of old covenant revelation.²⁶⁴ Through all the institutions and offices of the Old Testament, the Spirit's work pointed to the ultimate revelation of God through his Son, Jesus Christ.²⁶⁵

The Work of the Spirit in Christ and the New Covenant

The Spirit's work in the new covenant centers on Christ and the church. It is by the Spirit that Jesus Christ was conceived and born of a virgin,²⁶⁶ anointed to fulfill his earthly ministry,²⁶⁷ empowered to offer his life as a sacrifice,²⁶⁸ and raised in resurrection power.²⁶⁹ After Christ

THE GOSPEL AND THE APPLICATION OF SALVATION BY THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Gospel

The gospel is the good news of Jesus Christ and all that he did in his life, death, resurrection, and ascension to accomplish salvation for humanity.²⁸⁴ Therefore, the gospel is not a human action or achievement but rather an objective, historical, divine achievement²⁸⁵ that remains true and unchanging regardless of human opinion or response. The gospel stands as the core message of the Bible, which in all its parts testifies to God's saving acts culminating in the person and work of Christ.²⁸⁶ This good news is the power of God for salvation for all who believe,²⁸⁷ providing hope for the lost²⁸⁸ and abiding comfort and strength for the believer.²⁸⁹ There is no salvation apart from Jesus Christ, for there is no other name given under heaven by which we must be saved.²⁹⁰

Effectual Calling, Regeneration, and Conversion

God commands the gospel to be proclaimed to all people everywhere,²⁹¹ but all people are spiritually dead and unable to respond to this saving news.²⁹² Therefore, God graciously and effectually calls to himself those he chose to save in Christ.²⁹³ Through the proclamation of the gospel, the Holy Spirit regenerates the elect and brings them into a living union with Christ, bestowing new spiritual life,²⁹⁴ opening their eyes to see God's glory in Christ,²⁹⁵ and enabling them to respond to the gospel in faith and repentance.²⁹⁶ With a renewed heart and mind,²⁹⁷ we receive Christ and rely fully on him for salvation, turning from our sinful, self-seeking way of life to love and follow Christ in joyful obedience.²⁹⁸ Only those who respond to the gospel in this way will be saved,²⁹⁹ yet even this response is a gift of God's merciful grace, ensuring that he alone receives the glory for our salvation.³⁰⁰

Justification and Adoption

In their union with Christ, believers freely receive all the benefits of the gospel.³⁰¹ Those whom God effectually calls to himself, he justifies in Christ,³⁰² forgiving all of

Sanctification, Perseverance, and Glorification

As the all-sufficient Savior, Christ also sanctifies his people, cleansing them from the impurity of sin and setting them apart for God and his service.³¹⁴ The renewing work of the Holy Spirit breaks their bondage to sin and Satan and raises them to new life, enabling believers to put sin to death and grow in likeness to Christ.³¹⁵ Sanctification is therefore both a definitive act of God³¹⁶ and a progressive work of the Spirit.³¹⁷ Believers must persevere in faith and obedience in order to be saved.³¹⁸ Yet this perseverance is also a gift of God in Christ, who preserves his own and keeps them safe forever.³¹⁹ The ultimate goal of sanctification is our full conformity to Christ's image, which will finally come when believers are raised physically with Christ in glory, freed from sin and exulting in the presence of God forever.³²⁰

THE EMPOWERING MINISTRY OF THE SPIRIT

The Filling of the Spirit

When Christ ascended, he poured out the Holy Spirit on the church, ushering in a greater experience of God's presence and power among his people.³²¹ The Spirit transforms hearts by the miracle of regeneration³²² and indwells all believers in abundant, new covenant measure.³²³ The Spirit also desires to fill God's people continually with increased power for Christian life and witness.³²⁴ To be filled with the Spirit is to be more fully under his influence,³²⁵ more aware of his presence,³²⁶ and more effective in his service.³²⁷ All Christians, therefore, must continually seek to be filled with the Spirit³²⁸ by living and praying in such a way that invites the Spirit's work among us, actively longing for God to accomplish his gracious purposes in us and through us.

The filling of the Spirit brings to God's people a deeper knowledge of Christ,³²⁹ an increased desire for holiness,³³⁰ a stronger commitment to unity and love, a greater fruitfulness in ministry, and a deeper gratitude for our salvation.³³¹

The Gifts of the Spirit

Christ loves the church, his body, and provides for its health and growth through the Holy Spirit.³³² In addition to giving new life, the Spirit sovereignly bestows gifts on every believer.³³³ Spiritual gifts are those abilities and expressions of God's power given by his grace for the glory of Christ and the building up of the church.³³⁴ The variety of these gifts—some permanent and some occasional, some more natural and some more remarkable—reflects³³⁵ the diversity of the members of Christ's body³³⁶ and demonstrates our need for one another.³³⁷ The gifts are not to be exercised with apprehension, pride, or disorder, but with faith, love, and order,³³⁸ and always in submission to the authority of Scripture as the final revelation of God.³³⁹ With the exception of those among the apostles who were commissioned as eyewitnesses of Christ and made recipients of normative revelation,³⁴⁰ the full range of spiritual gifts remain at work in the church and are given

LIFE IN CHRIST

Growing in Christ

All believers, by virtue of their union with Christ, are progressively transformed into his image.³⁴² Although the ruling power of sin in our lives has been broken, remnants of corruption remain in our hearts that we will fight throughout our lives.³⁴³ This lifelong process of growth takes place as the Spirit empowers us to abide in Christ and strive for holiness in every area of life.³⁴⁴ Resting in Christ's finished work never renders our effort unnecessary but rather enables the joyful pursuit of loving and pleasing God.³⁴⁵ Compelled by grace, believers grow in the knowledge of God, obey Christ's commands, walk by the Spirit, mortify sin, and pursue God's priorities and purposes.³⁴⁶ Although such actions are not the ground of our salvation, they demonstrate the authenticity of our salvation and are a means by which God keeps us faithful to the end.³⁴⁷ Among the many public and private means of grace, the Word of God, prayer, and fellowship are primary instruments of our sanctification,³⁴⁸ fostering communion with God and training us together to glorify him, love others, and testify to Christ in the world.³⁴⁹

Waiting for Christ

Living the Christian life involves longing³⁵⁰ and waiting for the return of the Lord Jesus Christ.³⁵¹ Although believers are new creations in Christ and presently enjoy the blessings of his resurrection power,³⁵² their sanctification remains partial and incomplete in this life.³⁵³ Furthermore, they continue to live in mortal bodies in a creation subject to futility,³⁵⁴ opposed by the world,³⁵⁵ the flesh,³⁵⁶ and the devil.³⁵⁷ The Word of God assures us that we are his beloved children,³⁵⁸ yet such an assurance does not remove the reality of suffering, sorrow, and persecution in this present age.³⁵⁹ The gospel enables us to rejoice in the midst of tribulations,³⁶⁰ assured that his purposes are working for our good even in circumstances we do not understand.³⁶¹ Fixing our eyes on

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Universal Church

The universal church is the true, worshipping community of God's people, composed of all the elect from all time.³⁶⁴ Throughout salvation history, God by his Word and Spirit has been calling sinful people out of the whole human race to create a new redeemed humanity,³⁶⁵ whom Christ purchased with his blood.³⁶⁶ With the giving of the Spirit at Pentecost,³⁶⁷ God's people were reconstituted as his new covenant church,³⁶⁸ in continuity with the old covenant people of God but now brought to fulfillment by the work of Christ.³⁶⁹ All of God's people are united in one body³⁷⁰—with Christ as the supreme, sustaining, and life-giving head³⁷¹—and set apart for God's own possession and purposes.³⁷²

The Local Church

As an expression of Christ's universal church, the local church is the focal point of God's plan to mature his people and save sinners.³⁷³ Therefore, all Christians are to join themselves as committed members to a specific local church.³⁷⁴ A true church is marked by the faithful preaching of the Word,³⁷⁵ the right administration of the sacraments,³⁷⁶ and the proper exercise of church discipline.³⁷⁷ Even true churches are imperfect: they often contain a mixture of unbelievers hidden among the true flock³⁷⁸ and are vulnerable to theological error and moral failure.³⁷⁹ Yet Christ is unwavering in his commitment to build his church and will surely bring it to maturity.³⁸⁰

Christ has given the offices of elder³⁸¹ and deacon³⁸² to the church.³⁸³ Elders occupy the sole office of governance and are called to teach, oversee, care for, and protect the flock entrusted to them by the Lord.³⁸⁴ Deacons provide for the various needs of the church through acts of service. God gives these and other people as gifts to serve and equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ.³⁸⁵ In keeping with God's created design Scripture reserves the office of elder for men,³⁸⁶ yet men and women alike belong to a royal priesthood in which each member is gifted by God to play a vital role in the life and mission of the church.³⁸⁷

The Sacraments of the Church

The sacraments are precious means of grace that signify the benefits of the gospel, confirm its promises to the believer, and visibly distinguish the church from the world.³⁸⁸ The Lord Jesus instituted two sacraments, baptism and the Lord's Supper,³⁸⁹ for faithful observance by the church³⁹⁰ until his return.³⁹¹ Baptism is an initiatory, unrepeatable sacrament³⁹² for those who come to faith in Christ that pictures their remission of sins and union with Christ in his death and resurrection.³⁹³ Through immersion in water in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit,³⁹⁴ the believer publicly proclaims his faith in Christ and signifies his entrance into the body of Christ.³⁹⁵ Although commanded by Christ and a true means of grace, grace is not so inseparably tied to baptism that no one can be saved without it, or that everyone who is baptized is thereby saved.³⁹⁶

In the Lord's Supper, the gathered church eats bread, signifying Christ's body given for his people, and drinks the cup of the Lord, signifying his blood shed for our sins.³⁹⁷ As we observe this sacrament with faith and sober self-examination,³⁹⁸ we remember and proclaim the death of Christ, commune with him and receive spiritual nourishment for our souls, signify our unity with other members of Christ's body, and look forward to the Lord's triumphant return.³⁹⁹

The Purpose and Mission of the Church

As the body of Christ, the church exists to worship God,⁴⁰⁰ to edify and mature his people,⁴⁰¹ and to bear witness to Christ and his kingdom in all the world.⁴⁰² Governed by Scripture, the church gathers for the teaching of the Word,⁴⁰³ prayer,⁴⁰⁴ the sacraments,⁴⁰⁵ congregational singing,⁴⁰⁶ fellowship, and mutual edification through the exercise of spiritual gifts.⁴⁰⁷ As the Father sent Jesus into the world, so Jesus has sent his people into the world in the power of the Spirit.⁴⁰⁸ The church's mission is to make disciples of all nations, teaching them to observe all that Christ has commanded.⁴⁰⁹ We do this by proclaiming the gospel, planting churches,

There will always be a gathering of believers on earth because the Lord promises to build, guide, and preserve his church to the end of the age.⁴¹⁰ When Christ returns, he will gather and perfect his church from every tribe, tongue, and nation as a people for his own possession, and he will dwell with them forever.⁴¹¹

THE LAST THINGS

Death and the Intermediate State

Death entered God's good creation as a result of Adam's sin, and now all people are subject to God's curse of death.⁴¹² Yet believers have no need to fear,⁴¹³ because Christ has conquered death and delivered us from its dominion.⁴¹⁴ Although our bodies return to dust for a time,⁴¹⁵ death for the Christian has become a doorway to paradise,⁴¹⁶ where our souls enter immediately into God's presence⁴¹⁷ to behold and enjoy our Savior and to rest from our labors.⁴¹⁸ In company with all the spirits of the righteous made perfect,⁴¹⁹ we will await the redemption of our bodies⁴²⁰ and our full and final salvation.⁴²¹ The souls of the unredeemed,

Christ's Return and the Resurrection

At the appointed time known only to God,⁴²⁴ Jesus Christ will return to the earth in power and glory⁴²⁵ as Judge⁴²⁶ and King⁴²⁷ to whom every knee will bow.⁴²⁸ Christ's personal,⁴²⁹ physical,⁴³⁰ and visible⁴³¹ return is the blessed hope of all who trust in him.⁴³² At the end of the age the just and the unjust will be raised as their souls are reunited to their bodies: the just to a resurrection of life, the unjust to a resurrection of judgment.⁴³³ When the dead in Christ are raised,⁴³⁴ their perishable bodies will be redeemed and made like Christ's imperishable, glorious, powerful, spiritual body.⁴³⁵ Those in Christ who are alive shall likewise be changed,⁴³⁶ and thus will all God's glorified people forever bear the image of their Savior.⁴³⁷

Judgment and the Consummation

On the last day all people will appear before Christ, who is the judge of all.⁴³⁸ Those who suppressed God's truth in unrighteousness and did not obey the gospel of Christ⁴³⁹ will suffer the righteous wrath of God⁴⁴⁰ and be justly cast into the hell of fire with the devil and his angels.⁴⁴¹ There they will experience eternal, conscious punishment according to their sins.⁴⁴² Those saved by Christ, whose names are written in the book of life, will be welcomed into the joy of their master and richly rewarded for every good work done in his name.⁴⁴³ God's glorified people will inherit the kingdom⁴⁴⁴ from which all sin, sorrow, suffering, and death will be banished.⁴⁴⁵ Christ as king will set all of creation free from its bondage to corruption,⁴⁴⁶ making new the heavens and the earth⁴⁴⁷ and establishing his eternal rule in his consummated kingdom.⁴⁴⁸ Surrounded by unimaginable beauty,⁴⁴⁹ we will enjoy unhindered communion with our triune God,⁴⁵⁰ beholding him, serving him, worshipping him, and reigning with him forever and ever.⁴⁵¹ Amen.
